HAS A DIFFICULT JOB.

The Work of an English Monk in This Country.

HE WOULD SAVE SOULS IN CHICAGO.

Father Ignatius Arrives and Begins His Mission—Some Account of a Remarkable Man—How He Looks, Dresses and His Methods—What He Thinks of Brooks and Newton Told in His Own Plain English—Dr. Briggs Sustained by the "Union" Directors.

CHICAGO, June 6.—Father Ignatius, O. S. B. Monk, "That's the way he signs himself. He arrived in the city yesterday from New York. Father Ignatius is the first monk of the church of England since the time of Henry VIII. He is the founder of the Order of St. Benedict in the church of England. This statement will throw light on the uninformed on the peculiar style in which he signs himself. Father Ignatius came to Chicago to uphold the old Welsh motto: "Y Gwir Yn Echydd Y Byd," which means, "Truth against the world," and to uphold the truth he will hold a mission here, beginning to-day at 3:30 p. m. He is accompanied by Fathers Michael and David, who came with him to this country. Father Ignatius is a most agreeable gentleman.

Description of the British Monk.
He is 53 years old. Years of extensive travel and wide learning and study have made him an interesting and brilliant conversationalist. Father Ignatius has a smooth-shaven face, with a complexion as pure and rosy almost as that of a maiden. He has a high forehead, his face is full and round, and a pair of blue eyes sparkle with intelligence as he warms up to a fervent exclamation on any subject. He is of medium height and build. He has that circular cut of hair known as tonsure, and is clad in a long, flowing, hooded robe of black serge, girdled at the waist by a hempen rope, above which dangle a string of beads and a crucifix. On his bare feet are sandals strapped by leather thongs. He never wears boots or shoes—always sandals.

Like Our Own Jerry Simpson.
In the summer he wears no socks. He wears this garb both in the pulpit and on the street. Father Ignatius is therefore a figure that will attract people to hear him through curiosity. But the great crowd that have heard him in the east were charmed by his fascinating methods of oratory. The idle curiosity-seekers became interested listeners. The father possesses a smattering of English and the patois of the south of France. He has a fine, clear, ringing voice, and he has a fine, clear, ringing voice, and he has a fine, clear, ringing voice.

An Allusion to Brooks and Newton.
"The church of England, to which I belong, has a historic faith. It has been up held for centuries. These modern heretics who break down this old faith are doing nothing to build up the church, and they ought to leave the church. I refer to such men as Rev. Phillips Brooks and Rev. Dr. Hester Newton. Newton is paid a handsome salary to preach certain doctrines of the Episcopal church, and instead of that he is accepting the money and preaching something entirely different and in direct variance with the declarations of the church. He ought, therefore, as a matter of honesty, leave the church. He is taking the money from the church, but is not keeping the obligation for which he was employed."

Should Go Out or Be Kicked Out.
"Let him get out and start a church of his own. If he doesn't get out, he ought to be kicked out. Such men as Brooks and Newton preach views opposite to those held by the church, and then when the church defends itself and properly calls them heretics, they answer back that they are preaching nineteenth century liberalism and that the church is narrow-minded and foggy. Let these heretics get out of the church, then, to preach their liberalism, and nobody will bother them. They can then preach without molestation the same as Bob Ingersoll delivers his lectures."

THEY STAND BY DR. BRIGGS.
Union Theological Seminary Makes an Issue with the Assembly.
NEW YORK, June 6.—For three hours yesterday afternoon the directors of the Union Theological seminary sat in secret session discussing the case of Dr. Briggs. A resolution was adopted at the meeting upholding the former action of the directors regarding the transfer of Dr. Briggs from the Davenport professorship of Hebrew to the Edward Robinson professorship of Biblical theology. The resolution was as follows: "That the board of directors, after having taken legal advice and after due consideration, see no reason to change their minds on the subject of the transfer of Dr. Briggs, and feel bound in the direction of their duties under their charter and constitution to adhere to the same."

Only Two Dissenting Votes.
"This is all," said Treasurer Kingsley, "that we can make public of the meeting with the exception that there were two dissenting votes upon the passage of the resolution. The other points raised are deferred until after we hear from the general assembly." The fact that a struggle was in progress behind closed doors was evident when Professor George A. Prentiss staggered into the hall after the discussion had been under way for two hours, and nearly sank to the floor through weakness brought on by over-excitement. The venerable professor's body shook like a leaf, and he had to be assisted to a private room until he had recovered.

Failure in Boots and Shoes.
BOSTON, June 6.—Francis Emery, boot and shoe manufacturer, assigned yesterday for the benefit of his creditors. All of Mr. Emery's property has been transferred to the assignees for the equal benefit, without preference, of all the creditors.

THE STEWART MILLIONS

Conspiracy of a Syndicate to Obtain Them.

SOME STARTLING DISCLOSURES.

Corrupt Collusion and Deep Scheming on the Part of the Plaintiffs Charged by the Attorneys for the Defense in the Contest for the Millionaire Merchant's Money—Drop 1,500 in the Slot and Fall Out $50,000.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The charge will shortly be made in open court that there exists a conspiracy with no less ambitious an object than the securing of the millions left by Alexander T. Stewart. The attorney for ex-Judge Henry Hilton and Charles J. Clinch will declare that William P. Smith, to whom Stewart bequeathed a house, has entered into "corrupt collusion" with the Irish relatives of the dead merchant to deprive the heirs of the estate of the millions. The attorneys will further try to prove that the suits of the Irish relatives are brought to libel ex-Judge Hilton, and that they are being pressed by a syndicate, the members of which are to receive $50,000 when they get in possession of the estate, for every $1,500 paid in by them now.

The first action brought to have A. T. Stewart's will declared invalid and to have his estate divided among his relatives was that of Sarah Branagh, of Ireland, against William P. Smith, which was brought to eject him from the possession of the house, 115 East Thirty-fifth street, which Stewart bequeathed him. Smith was in the employ of the merchant prior to his death, and was a witness to his will. The plaintiff was the daughter of one of Stewart's first cousins, and Judge Wallace, in the United States circuit court a few weeks ago, directed a verdict for Smith on the ground that an alien could not transmit the title to inherited property. As soon as the first suit was dismissed another was brought against Smith by Thomas Stewart, of Ireland, and Alexander Stewart, of New York, both first cousins to the merchant prince.

A Syndicate Formed.
It is in connection with this suit that the charge of "collusion and conspiracy" is to be made. Mr. Holmes, one of the attorneys for the defense, has about 100 pages of the affidavits to support his charge that Smith set himself up as a straw man for the Irish relatives to knock down. Part of the evidence is to prove that a syndicate has been formed to push the suits, and that its members by dropping $1,500 in the slot are to receive $50,000 when their ship comes in. The Irish relatives have based their claim on the assertion that Stewart's will is a forgery. There are four alleged witnesses to it, they say, William P. Smith, William B. Lynch, Stewart's valet, Dr. W. W. White, and Dr. C. E. Marey. Gen. Benjamin F. Butler is the leading attorney for the Irish heirs.

LITIGATION WILL FOLLOW.

A Dam on Tobacco River in Michigan Destroyed by Dynamite.

GLADWIN, Mich., June 6.—A dam on Tobacco river, owned by F. W. Gubel, of Saginaw City, was destroyed by dynamite. Gubel had three men in charge of the dam, but they were driven off by a large force of men and the structure was blown up. There has been trouble among the parties owning logs on the stream for some time. C. K. Eddy & Son, of Bay City, have a drive of 7,000,000 feet, and B. W. Gubel has also 12,000,000 feet below the dam. It is claimed on the one hand that there is quicksand for a short distance above the dam, which fills up the stream near the dam and causes slack water, rendering it difficult, if not impossible, to get the logs over it. On the other hand it is asserted that the destruction of the dam will not only tie up the drive above the dam, but the 12,000,000 feet below it. Litigation will doubtless follow.

Horrible Treatment of a Young Man.

WATERLOO, Iowa, June 6.—News of a finch crime which was committed by three tramps near Gilbertville, about fourteen miles south of this place, has just been received. Three tramps stopped at a farm house and asked for something to eat. A farm hand named Joseph Brennan, about 17 years of age, was at the house alone. He told them that he could not give them anything. They then assaulted and shamefully mutilated him. The assault rendered him senseless and he lay in that condition for over an hour before he recovered sufficiently to give an alarm. When he did, the tramps had made their escape.

Made a Miscantellation.

DUGGON, Ill., June 6.—A head-on collision occurred on the Illinois Central just below here about noon between the fast fruit express, north-bound, and a will freight engine, west-bound, carrying tables, fruit, and merchandise are piled up in an immense heap, as are also several empty box and coal cars. The collision was caused by the conductor's watch on the wild south-bound train stopping, causing him to make a miscalculation in regard to a meeting point. All trains are transferring passengers, mail, express, and baggage.

How Hiram Sawtelle Was Murdered.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 6.—Isaac B. Sawtelle, now confined in the Concord state prison, convicted of fratricide, has put on record with the governor and council the story of how his brother Hiram was killed. In brief, Isaac admits he was present when his brother was shot in Lebanon, Me., but says the killing was done by an agent of Dr. Charles Blood. He tried to save his brother's life, but to no purpose. The cause of the shooting was Dr. Blood's failure to compel Hiram Sawtelle to sign a document releasing certain property.

For Senator from Ohio.

TIFFIN, Ohio, June 6.—The Thirty-first district Democrats nominated the Hon. William C. Gear, of Upper Sandusky, for state senator Friday and endorsed Governor Campbell, while free silver was given a thump. The district gives over 1,000 Democratic majority.

Jeff Davis' Birthday a Holiday.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 6.—The bill making the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis a legal holiday has become a law. After the bill was passed the legislature adjourned sine die.

AN ALL ROUND RASCAL.

M. E. Duval, Who Swindled Senators and Others Under Arrest.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 6.—W. M. K. Duval, the notorious penman who so effectively swindled United States senators, congressmen, and other prominent men at Washington last winter with his baptismal certificate dodge, was arrested here Friday and after a hearing committed for trial on the charge of stealing shoes. In his letters to Vice President Morton and others at Washington he wrote that he had named his baby boy after each of them respectively, and in nearly every instance he received money or silver tokens in the way of cups or spoons. Unsuspecting housewives have been his recent victims. His plan, it is charged, was to go to the home of some car conductor or driver and represent to the housewife that her husband in jumping from a car had broken his shoe, and requested that his Sunday pair be sent to him at once. In several cases where there were Sunday pairs available the shoes were secured.

STUDENTS IN COURT.

Fined $65 Each for Having Liquor in Their Club Room.

BOSTON, June 6.—Friday morning thirty prominent students of Harvard college, members of Alpha Delta Phi club, whose rooms were raided by police this week and large seizures of liquor made, were fined $65 each in Cambridge court. Among the culprits were Arthur J. Cummock, captain of the university football club and first marshal of the coming class-day exercises. Dudley S. Dean, captain of the university nine, also a class officer, James A. Lowell, son of Judge Lowell, Jacob Wendell, Jr., poet and one of the noted society men of the college, "Bennie" Trafford, well-known full-back of the football team, and first-base man of the university nine. A second raid was made Friday noon on the club-room of the Zeta Psi society, 34 Church street, where about half a gallon of liquor was seized.

NEARLY CHOKED BY A BOA.

A Side-Show Man Has a Terrible Experience.

DETROIT, Mich., June 6.—In the side-show of the Forepaugh circus, which exhibited here Thursday, is a snake charmer, and the principal pet is a box constrictor eighteen feet long, called Old Nick, on account of his wicked disposition. When the side-show was over Thursday night Harry Prince, who has charge of the snakes, was led to replace them in their cage in the menagerie tent.

In the Colds of "Old Nick."
A little later a teamster heard a groan in the tent and found Prince black in the face and nearly strangled with five coils of "Old Nick" around him. Cowboys were summoned from the big tent, who lassoed the boa. They released Prince after slashing the snake several times and the "charmer" was restored to consciousness.

An Aged Embezzler.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 6.—No case of its character in this state has attracted more attention than that of E. F. Moore. He is the venerable ex-president of the People's National bank at Fayetteville. He is charged with embezzling $80,000 of the bank's funds. A bill was sent to the grand jury in the United States circuit court here. It was returned as not a true bill. The jury stood five to thirteen. One juror was a nephew of Moore. His relationship was discussed by the jury, which left it to him as to whether he would leave or remain. He said he would remain, and was just and, accordingly, remained. It is said that another bill against Moore will be drawn. He is an aged man with snow white hair.

Betrayal and Death.

HUNTINGTON, Pa., June 6.—A sad story of love and trust and betrayal comes from Petersburg, in this county. At day-break Saturday morning the body of Miss Annie M. Hernecome, aged 24, was found on the front step of her father's residence. Miss Hernecome was highly gifted intellectually, and was of high social position. She was well known throughout central Pennsylvania as a prominent temperance advocate. She was to have been married this month, but three weeks ago her accepted suitor mysteriously disappeared. The coroner's inquest revealed the fact that Miss Hernecome was about to be come a mother and had taken poison to cover up her shame.

Denver and Rio Grande Train Wrecked.

DENVER, June 6.—Passenger train No. 6, on the Denver and Rio Grande, was wrecked Friday about fifteen miles south of this city. The heavy rains the last few days had washed the support from under a culvert. The passengers were considerably shaken up, but no one was killed and only two injured—Edward Grater, badly hurt, and Richard Provert, who lost the head and neck. Richard Provert, of Leadville, injured in the back and right knee.

A Youthful Alleged Incendiary.

BOSTON, June 6.—A boy named Walter C. Hens, aged 11, was arrested Friday on a charge of attempting to set fire to the Emerson Public school on Poplar street last Monday. The boy is a pupil at the school, and on Monday asked leave to go out. Shortly afterward fire was discovered in one of the closets where a quantity of shavings had been put. There were several hundred children in the school at the time.

Caught by a Brake Arm.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., June 6.—John Keefe, a tramp about 60 years of age, was run over by thirteen freight cars in the Erie yard. He had lain down lengthwise between the rails and fallen asleep. The cars were let down on the switch without an engine, and it was not until the last car came along that he was touched. Then a brake arm, caught in his clothing and threw him from the track. He may recover.

Will Not Deny O'Brien and Dillon.

LONDON, June 6.—In the house of commons Friday Balfour said, in reply to Nolan, that although he considered the time had come when certain portions of the coercion act might be suspended, and especially the clauses giving summary jurisdiction, he never meant such action on the part of the government to be retrospective, remitting the sentences of Dillon and O'Brien.

Fist Fight in Court.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 6.—Col. H. H. Case and Col. W. J. Clift, two leading attorneys, had a fist fight in court Friday afternoon, Clift striking the first blow. They were fined $50 each by Judge Moon. It is now thought they will fight a duel.

HARTMAN MONUMENT

Ceremonies of Unveiling at Norristown, Pa.

30,000 MEN IN THE PROCESSION.

Gen. J. F. S. Gobin Was Chief Marshal and the Troops Were Under Command of Gen. Robert P. Dechert—A Major General's Salute of Fifteen Guns Fired as the Veil Was Removed from the Statue—Orator of the Day.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., June 6.—The ceremonies attending the unveiling of the Hartman monument took place here Saturday, and it is estimated that 30,000 men marched in the procession, of which Gen. J. F. S. Gobin was the chief marshal. The troops taking part were commanded by Gen. Robert P. Dechert, and included the First, Second, Third and Sixth regiments, the battalion State Fencibles, Gray

JOHN F. HARTMAN, represented by twelve posts with Department Commander Boyer in charge, and Pennsylvania commander order of the Loyal Legion, under Gen. D. McGraw; the association of the third division of the Ninth army corps, army of the Potomac.

The March to the Cemetery.

Adj. Gen. McClelland and staff, Gen. J. V. Plume and staff, of New Jersey, Gen. Thomas L. Watson, of Connecticut, with his staff, Maj. Gen. William J. Sewell, of Camden, N. J., and Col. William H. Hodgkins, of Boston, and formerly of Hartman's command, were also present. The line formed on Main street at 2:30 p. m. and marched by way of Main, Swede and Franklin streets to the cemetery. Governor Robert E. Pattison, president, and Rev. Henry C. McCook, of Philadelphia, offered prayer. Maj. Gen. George A. Snowdon delivered an address on behalf of the militia, and other speeches were made by Gens. Beaver and Hastings. Major general's salute of fifteen guns was fired by Battery C, of Philadelphia, as the string of the monument was severed by Miss Margaret North, daughter of Col. George H. North, Gen. Hartman's old adjutant general.

Description of the Monument.

Gen. James W. Latta then delivered the oration of the day, after which the benediction was pronounced. At the conclusion of the ceremonies Governor Pattison reviewed the column from a point in front of Gen. Hartman's old home. The monument is located in the extreme southern corner of the Montgomery cemetery, and stands upon the summit of a high bluff (over the grave of the general) that commands a view of the Schuylkill and the hills of Valley Forge in the distance. It is built of plain granite six feet square at the base and five feet and a half thick, surrounded by a shaft thirty-five feet high. The name "Hartman" in square letters is cut upon the base, with a bronze medallion bust of the general in the center, just above the name. The money for the monument, amounting to $8,000, was raised by means of subscriptions from members of the National guard.

New Phase of Russian Jew-Baiting.

LONDON, June 6.—St. Petersburg advices state that the persecution of the Jews has taken a new phase. The Russian authorities, after having abused, imprisoned and expelled many thousands of the unfortunate race, are now anxious to prove that the Jews are criminal and deserve the punishment inflicted on them before any charge was made. Therefore the police have seized the books of a number of synagogues containing the Jewish record of marriages and it is hoped to secure evidence that bigamous marriages have been common, and that Hebrews, after obtaining worthless divorces from the rabbis, have married again in violation of law.

Corner-Stone Laying at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 6.—The cornerstone of the new city hall was placed in position with imposing ceremonies Saturday afternoon. Mayor Noonan had proclaimed a half-holiday and all public buildings and many business houses were closed in honor of the event. The exercises were conducted by the Masonic fraternity. The ceremonies commenced with a salute of artillery by Battery A, after which the song, "Star Spangled Banner," was rendered by a select chorus. The opening address was made by Mayor E. A. Noonan.

Those Sheep Shearers Were Innocent.

SREBOGAN, Wis., June 6.—The coroner's jury in the case of Fred Kopwood, the boy who was found dead in the woods, brought in a verdict to the effect that no one was responsible for his death. It was shown that the boy drank the whisky without compulsion, after he had been in the water, and that he started to go home his usual way, which led through the woods.

Murdered by a Masked Man.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 6.—Ed Callihan, a mining man and well known sport, was murdered by a masked man about two miles south of the city at an early hour yesterday. Josie Hill, a woman of loose morals, who was with him at the time, has been arrested and charged with luring Callihan to his death.

Want a Lady Member Appointed.

READING, Pa., June 6.—At Friday's session of the State Medical society a committee was appointed to call on Governor Pattison and urge him to appoint a lady member of the board of charities in the event of a vacancy in that body.

Why the Kaiser was Antisocial.

LONDON, June 6.—The Kaiser is said to be utterly antisocial at the baccarat trial, as in Germany nobody playing against the heir to the throne would think for a moment of winning.

SPENCER & LEHMAN CO.

It is Surprising.

Did you ever stop to think how hard it is for some firms to build up a successful business and how easy it is for others.

May & Churchman are surely among the fortunate ones, for they have only been in business a short time and have established a trade of which any old firm might feel proud.

Why have they been so successful? Simply because they sell nothing but the best goods at the lowest possible prices and are always obliging and courteous with everybody, and employ the most competent and experienced salesmen.

If you want to trade with a firm that is always the same you should give them a share of your grocery trade. They treat all alike, consequently the large buyers have no advantage over the small ones.

If you telephone in your order you can buy just as cheap as if you were to come in person.

We want your trade and are willing to do anything that is fair and honorable to get it.

We have the goods and know they are bought right and are willing to give you a benefit.

Come in and take a look through our store, and if the goods and the prices don't suit you, don't buy.

They will suit you though, and if you come once, we have no fear but that you will become a permanent customer.

Don't forget the place, May & Churchman, 211 North Water street, telephone No. 1.

A Probably Fatal Accident.

John Elliott, an employe in the livery stable of Frank Levey, Maros, met with a painful and perhaps fatal accident yesterday morning. He had climbed into the mow of the stable to throw down some hay. When he had thrown down what he wanted he dropped his pickaxe down the mow hole, throwing it as he supposed, far enough out of the way to permit him to jump down upon the bunch of hay he had thrown down. In this he failed, and springing down, the handle of the fork, which had been broken in such a manner as to leave a sharp point, entered his body about seven inches, penetrating the bowels. Dr. G. W. Weyl, of Maros, was summoned, and seeing that an operation would have to be performed, summoned his father, Dr. H. J. Weyl, of this city, who went out on the afternoon train. All the medical aid possible was rendered, but he is thought to be in an extremely critical condition.

He Didn't Like the Flavor.

Frank Adams, of Maros, had the index finger on his left hand cut off in a milk shake machine yesterday. A customer had dropped into the store and called for a shake. It was fixed up and placed in the machine, which was set in motion. By some oversight his finger was caught, and when the machine was stopped the place that was taken off dropped in the glass that was being shaken. It is hardly necessary to say that the customer did not drink the decoction. He said that it was flavored altogether too high for him. He thinks it will be some time before he will relish a milk shake.

A Modern Woodman Picnic.

The Modern Woodmen are arranging a big picnic to be held within a month. It will be attended by a number of grand officers and camps from Springfield, Bloomington, Mattoon and Paris.
